

English practice in France

Each morning is dedicated to the practice in English of the teachers in order to make (and publish?) a document of specific material useful for a subject, a lesson and a test and to be placed on the internet site as an advertisement of our project. The mornings will be divided in three 45- minute sessions for group work and they will be managed by a time master. Each afternoon is dedicated to a lesson related to the project - in situ and in English too. Touristic visits will be guided in English as much as possible. We expect all participants to practice English with Duolingo application on mobile phone or computer before their arrival in France for a minimum knowledge of English.
